Our Mission: Clinton Path Preschool inspires joyful learning through play and friendship in a cooperative community.

JOB OPENING:

EEC Certified Preschool Teacher – Temporary/Maternity Leave Coverage

Job Description and Requirements:

Clinton Path Preschool is looking for a Preschool Teacher to work with our community for a temporary maternity leave. Clinton Path Preschool is a cooperative community committed to providing our students, ages two years nine months to five years old, a joyful foundation to their journey as lifelong learners.

In a mixed-age, play-based program, students enjoy learning through the lens of eight multiple intelligences framework including music, math, nature, language, dance, art and dramatic play with dedicated teachers in a safe environment that honors the innate curiosity of children. School Hours: M-F, 8am - 3pm. Start date is July 1, 2018.

In addition to being fully certified, a qualified candidate would be:

- Aligned with Clinton Path's educational vision, mission and diversity and inclusion values
- Warm, nurturing, strength-based, and caring for this young age group
- Ability, willingness and experience to work collaboratively with the teaching team
- Support creation and implementation of curriculum that reflects both the philosophy of the teaching team and the needs of the children.
- Dedicated to working positively with families, parents and caregivers
- Willingness to be receptive to training process beginning in June
- Properly licensed to work with children (CORI, CPR, First Aid, etc.)

Please send Resume, 3 references and a Writing Sample that describes your interest in, and philosophy of, educating preschool children to clintonpathpresident@gmail.com
